O.B. Parrish, Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer

SEPARATION AGREEMENT AND GENERAL RELEASE

THIS SEPARATION AGREEMENT AND GENERAL RELEASE ("Agreement") is between The Female Health Company ("Company") and Karen King ("Employee") effective July 10, 2015 (the "Separation Date").

RECITALS

The Company and Employee desire to affect a final resolution and settlement of all matters and issues relating directly or indirectly to Employee's employment with the Company and Employee's separation from that employment as of the Separation Date and have arrived at a compromise of all such matters in this Agreement.

AGREEMENTS

1. Acknowledgment of Full Compensation Through Separation Date. Employee acknowledges and agrees that with payment by the Company to Employee of: (1) $14,772.92 (gross), less ordinary tax withholding and all required deductions, on the next regularly scheduled payroll date after the Separation Date, an amount representing Employee's outstanding earned wages through the Separation Date, and (2) $35,455 (gross), less ordinary tax withholding and all required deductions, an amount representing Employee's 25 unused vacation days and one unused personal day as of the Separation Date, Employee will have received from the Company and its related entities all salary, fringe benefits (including without limitation by enumeration vacation pay, expense reimbursement, bonuses, and retirement plan contributions except as enumerated herein) and all other compensation and benefits owed by the Company to Employee through the Separation Date.

2. Consideration. Conditioned upon Employee's signing of this Agreement and Employee's return of the Agreement to the Company, expiration of the seven day revocation period without revocation, and Employee's properly executing and returning the attached acknowledgment form to the Company (Exhibit B) indicating Employee's decision not to revoke this Agreement, the Company shall:

(a) pay Employee a separation payment in an amount equal to her base salary for a period of six months, which is equal to $177,275 (gross) in total, less ordinary tax withholding and all required deductions, which amount shall be paid in twelve equal installments on each of the twelve next regularly scheduled payroll dates commencing on the next regularly scheduled payroll date following Employee's proper execution and return of this Agreement to the Company and Employee's properly executing and returning Exhibit B to the Company; and

(b) to the extent permitted by law, pay Employee's premiums for medical, vision and dental coverage for the time period of August 1, 2015 through January 31, 2016 (the "Coverage Period"), if Employee timely elects Illinois Continuation Law ("ICL") coverage following the Separation Date. If Employee desires to continue ICL coverage after the Coverage Period ends, Employee will be solely responsible for timely paying the entire portion of Employee's ICL premiums to the Company on or before the first day of each month of coverage.

If Employee becomes covered under another group medical, vision and/or dental insurance policy during the Coverage Period, the Company's obligation to continue Employee's ICL premium payments will immediately cease.

Employee has an affirmative obligation to immediately notify the Company if Employee becomes covered under another group medical, vision and/or dental insurance policy during the Coverage Period. If Employee fails to timely notify the Company of Employee's new group medical, vision and/or dental insurance coverage, Employee will be responsible for reimbursing the Company for any ICL premiums the Company paid that it would not have otherwise had to pay, but for Employee's failure to timely notify the Company. If Employee elects not to utilize any portion of this ICL premium payment option, Employee will not be entitled to the value of the ICL premium payments not utilized by Employee. The Company will timely provide Employee with the necessary forms to make an ICL continuation election, if Employee so desires.

The consideration specified in this paragraph 2 shall not be deemed "compensation" for purposes of the Company's qualified profit sharing and retirement plan or other benefit programs, and payment of this amount does not entitle Employee to any profit sharing and/or retirement plan contributions by the Company for Employee's benefit or account. The consideration specified in this paragraph 2 is not consideration to which Employee is otherwise entitled, and constitutes additional consideration for Employee's obligations under this Agreement, including release and waiver of potential claims identified in paragraph 8 below, including without limitation a potential claim for age discrimination under the Age Discrimination in Employment Act, and the Employee's agreement to paragraphs 12, 13, and 14 of this Agreement.

3. Resignation. On the Separation Date, Employee has completed and returned to the Company the form attached as Exhibit A, resigning her position as a Director of the Company and all other positions and offices with the Company and any of its subsidiaries.

4. Transition Assistance. During the period from the Separation Date until January 31, 2016, Employee will make herself reasonably available for consultations by telephone to assist in the transition of her duties and responsibilities as the Chief Executive Officer and President of the Company.

5. Characterization of Separation From Employment. The parties acknowledge and agree that the termination of Employee's employment with the Company and the status as a director and officer of the Company and Employee's other positions with the Company and its Affiliates shall constitute a voluntary resignation by the Employee. Accordingly, Employee acknowledges that she is not eligible for unemployment compensation benefits based on the termination of her employment.

6. Restricted Stock; Bonus. Employee acknowledges that the 50,000 shares of restricted stock held by Employee which were scheduled to vest as to 16,667 shares on January 20, 2016 and 33,333 shares on January 20, 2017 shall be forfeited as of the Separation Date, and Employee shall promptly return to the Company for cancellation any stock certificate she holds representing such shares. Employee acknowledges and agrees that she will not be entitled to receive payment of any bonus under the Company's annual performance award program for performance in fiscal 2015 or any other period.

7. Non-Admission of Liability. Neither this Agreement nor any action taken by the Company pursuant to it shall in any way be construed as an admission by the Company of any liability, wrongdoing, or violation of law, regulation, contract or policy regarding any of the Company's decisions and actions regarding the employment or separation from employment of Employee.

8. Release and Waiver of Claims. For valuable consideration from the Company as stated above, Employee, for Employee and Employee's heirs, personal representatives, successors and assigns, hereby releases all claims of whatever nature that Employee may have against the Company, its parent company, affiliates, subsidiaries, predecessors, successors and assigns and its and their present, former or later insurers, agents, representatives, officers, administrators, directors, shareholders and employees (collectively "Releasees"), which arise out of or are in any manner based upon or related to the employment relationship between Employee and the Company, and the end of that relationship, and from all other claims or liabilities of any nature whatsoever which have arisen from any occurrence, transaction, omission or communication which transpired or occurred at any time before or on the date of this Agreement; provided, however, that this Agreement will not prevent any party from asserting a claim against the other party for breach of this Agreement.

Without limitation to the foregoing, Employee specifically releases, waives and forever discharges the Releasees from and against all liabilities, claims, actions, demands, damages and costs of every nature, whether known or unknown, asserted or unasserted, which arise under the Illinois Human Rights Act; Illinois law regarding retaliation/discrimination for filing a worker's compensation claim; Illinois Equal Pay Act; Illinois School Visitation Rights Act; Illinois AIDS Confidentiality Act; Illinois Right to Privacy in the Workplace Act; Illinois Genetic Information Privacy Act; Illinois Wage Payment and Collection Act; Illinois Minimum Wage Law; Illinois One Day Rest in Seven Act; Illinois Health and Safety Act; Illinois Whistleblower Act; Illinois Victims' Economic Safety and Security Act; Illinois Worker Adjustment and Retraining Notification Act; Illinois Criminal Identification Act; and other local, Illinois or federal discrimination-related, employment-related, labor-related, bias-related or equal rights-related laws, statutes, regulations, orders or ordinances; Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended; the Americans With Disabilities Act, as amended; the Equal Pay Act; the Genetic Information Nondiscrimination Act; the Age Discrimination in Employment Act (29 U.S.C. § 621 et seq.); state or federal parental, family and medical leave acts; the Uniformed Services Employment and Reemployment Rights Act (USERRA), or any other local, state, or federal military and/or veterans rights act, or any other claim based on veteran status; or arising under any other local, state or federal statute, ordinance, regulation or order, or which involve a claim or action for wrongful discharge, breach of contract (express or implied) and/or any other tort or common law cause of action.

9. No Limitation of Rights. The waiver and release in paragraph 8 does not affect those rights or claims that arise after the execution of this Agreement. Nor does the waiver and release affect those rights or claims that cannot be waived by law. While nothing contained in this Agreement shall be interpreted to prevent the United States

Equal Employment Opportunity Commission ("EEOC") from investigating and pursuing any matter which it deems appropriate, Employee understands and agrees that, by signing this Agreement, Employee is waiving any and all rights Employee may have to reinstatement, damages, remedies, costs, attorney's fees or other relief as to any claims Employee has released and any rights Employee has waived as a result of Employee's execution of this Agreement. Nothing contained in this Agreement is intended to limit Employee's right or ability to file a charge of discrimination with the EEOC. The EEOC has the authority to carry out its statutory duties by investigating the charge, issuing a determination, filing a lawsuit in court in its own name, or taking any other action authorized under law. Employee retains the right to testify, assist or participate in any such action. Employee retains the right to communicate with the EEOC and such communication can be initiated by Employee or in response to the government and is not limited by the non-disparagement obligations contained in paragraph 16 of this Agreement.

10. No Reinstatement, Reemployment or Rehire. Employee expressly declines reinstatement, reemployment or rehire by the Company and waives all rights to claim such relief. If Employee should apply for employment with the Company or with any of its related entities in the future, Employee agrees that Employee has no entitlement to such employment and may be denied employment on the basis of this Agreement.

11. No Pending Matters. Employee warrants and represents that Employee has not filed any pending complaint, charge, claim or grievance concerning Employee's compensation, separation from employment or terms and conditions of employment against the Company with any local, state or federal agency, court or commission, and that if any agency, commission or court assumes jurisdiction of any such complaint or charge on behalf of Employee, Employee will immediately request that agency, commission, or court to dismiss such proceeding.

12. Noncompetition. Employee agrees as follows:

(a) Commencing on the Separation Date and during the period ending on January 10, 2016, Employee will not:

(i) directly or indirectly, in any capacity, perform duties and responsibilities for, participate in, provide assistance to, engage in or have a financial or other interest in any business, activity or enterprise which is a Direct Competitor (as defined below); provided, however, that the ownership of less than 1% of the stock of a corporation whose shares are traded in a recognized stock exchange or traded in the over-the-counter market, even though that corporation may be a Direct Competitor, shall not be prohibited by this paragraph 12(a);

(ii) directly or indirectly, in any capacity, contact, solicit or service any Active Customer (as defined below) for the purpose of providing or selling female condoms to such Active Customer during the Measurement Period (as defined below); or

(iii) directly or indirectly, in any capacity, request or advise any Active Customer (as defined below), or suppliers or vendors of Company who currently have, or have had, business relationships with Company during the Measurement Period (as defined below), to withdraw, curtail or cancel any of their business or relations with Company.

(b) Commencing on the Separation Date and during the period ending on first anniversary of the Separation Date, Employee will not directly or indirectly, in any capacity, induce or attempt to induce any employee of Company to terminate his or her relationships or breach any of his or her agreements with Company. Nothing in this Agreement shall otherwise prohibit Employee's future employer from hiring Company's employees without Employee's direct or indirect involvement.

(c) Definitions.

(i) "Active Customer" shall mean any Company customer during the Measurement Period;

(ii) "Measurement Period" shall mean the twelve (12) month period preceding the Separation Date.

(iii) "Direct Competitor" shall mean any company that manufactures, is developing, or sells female condoms.

13. Confidential Information.

(a) Definitions. For purposes of this Agreement, "Confidential Information" means information, to the extent it is not a trade secret, that is possessed by or developed for Company and/or its related entities and that relates to the business or technology of Company and/or its related entities, including but not limited to compounds, formulations, strategic plans, methods, products, procedures, processes, techniques, designs, job organization systems, business plans and strategies, existing or proposed bids, bidding strategies, technical developments, existing or proposed research projects, financial or business projections, investments, marketing plans and strategies, pricing and cost information, negotiation strategies, sales strategies and plans, training information and materials, Company employee compensation and other Company employee information, customer or potential customer lists, customer purchasing history, information generated for customer engagements, and other similar confidential and proprietary information. Confidential Information also includes information received by Company from others which Company has an obligation to treat as confidential, including information obtained in connection with customer engagements. Confidential Information shall not include information that is or becomes available to the public through no wrongful act or omission of Employee or any other person under a duty of confidentiality to Company.

(b) Nondisclosure. Employee agrees that for 24 months following the Separation Date, Employee will not, directly or indirectly, in any capacity, use or disclose, or cause to be used or disclosed, in any geographic area in which or to any person or entity to which such use or disclosure could harm the business interests of Company, any Confidential Information. This provision does not prohibit Employee's use of general skills acquired prior to or during employment by Company, as long as such use does not involve the use or disclosure of Confidential Information or Company trade secrets.

14. Trade Secrets. Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph 13, the parties agree that nothing in this Agreement shall be construed to limit or negate any statutory or common law of torts or trade secrets, where such law provides Company with broader protection than that provided in this Agreement. Employee shall not use or disclose the trade secrets of Company as long as they remain trade secrets.

15. Specific Performance. Employee acknowledges and agrees that irreparable injury to Company may result in the event that Employee breaches any covenant in this Agreement, and that the remedy at law for the breach of any such covenant will be inadequate. If Employee engages in any act in violation of any provision of paragraph 12, 13, or 14, Employee agrees that Company shall be entitled, in addition to such other remedies and damages that may be available to it by law or under this Agreement, to injunctive relief to enforce such provisions without the necessity of posting a bond and its costs, expenses and attorney fees incurred in enforcing such provisions.

16. Non-Disparagement. Employee agrees to maintain a positive and constructive attitude and demeanor towards the Company, its directors, officers, shareholders, employees and agents, and agrees to refrain from making derogatory comments or statements of a negative nature about the Company, its directors, officers, shareholders, employees and agents, to anyone, including, but not limited to, current and former Company customers, employees, suppliers, vendors, and referral sources. Each of the Company, O.B. Parrish, Donna Felch, William R. Gargiulo, Jr. and David R. Bethune agrees to maintain a positive and constructive attitude and demeanor towards Employee and refrain from making derogatory comments or statements of a negative nature about her to anyone. Each of the individuals identified in the preceding sentence acknowledges and agrees that Employee's obligations hereunder constitute sufficient consideration for each such individual's obligations in this paragraph.

17. Return of Company Property. Employee represents and agrees that Employee has returned any and all Company records, files, keys, keyless entry cards, documents, confidential or proprietary information, computer equipment, CDs, computer software programs, vehicles, credit cards and any other property owned by or belonging to the Company in Employee's possession or under Employee's control without any originals or copies being kept by Employee or conveyed to any other person.

18. No Representations as Employee. After the Separation Date, Employee agrees that Employee will not represent herself as being a current employee, officer, attorney, agent or representative of Company for any purpose. Within 48 hours of the Separation Date, Employee specifically agrees to update any and all social media accounts the Employee accesses, uses or maintains to remove any reference to Employee being a current employee of the Company. For purposes of this paragraph 18, social media accounts include, without limitation, Facebook, LinkedIn and Twitter.

19. No Injuries. Employee acknowledges and agrees that Employee has reported to Company management any and all workplace injuries (if any) sustained by Employee during Employee's employment with the Company and that Employee is not aware of any facts that would give rise to a worker's compensation claim that has not already been properly reported.

20. Binding Agreement. This Agreement shall be binding upon Employee and upon Employee's heirs, administrators, representatives, executors, successors and assigns and shall inure to the benefit of the Releasees and to their heirs, administrators, representatives, executors, successors and assigns. This Agreement shall be binding upon the Releasees and their heirs, administrators, representatives, executors, successors and assigns and shall inure to the benefit of Employee and her heirs, administrators, representatives, executors, successors and assigns.

21. Severability. It is understood and agreed that the provisions of this Agreement shall be deemed severable, and the invalidity or unenforceability of any one or more of the provisions herein shall not affect the validity and enforceability of the other provisions herein.

22. Complete and Exclusive Agreement. The parties understand and agree that this Agreement is final and binding and constitutes the complete and exclusive statement of the terms and conditions of settlement, that no representations or commitments were made by the parties to induce this Agreement other than as expressly set forth herein and that this Agreement is fully understood by the parties. This Agreement supersedes any and all prior agreements relating to Employee's employment and compensation, including but not limited to the Employee's December 5, 2013 offer letter and the Change of Control Agreement dated as of January 20, 2014. This Agreement may not be modified or supplemented except by a subsequent written agreement signed by the party against whom enforcement is sought.

23. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, all of which shall be considered one and the same agreement. Signatures to this Agreement transmitted by facsimile, by electronic mail in portable document format (.pdf) form, or by any other electronic means intended to preserve the original graphic and pictorial appearance of a document will have the same effect as physical delivery of the paper document bearing the original signature.

24. Jurisdiction and Venue. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Illinois, without regard to principles of conflicts of law. Any controversy between Company and Employee arising under or relating to this Agreement shall be determined by a state or federal court located in Cook County, Illinois, and the parties agree not to present any such controversy to any other court or forum. The parties expressly consent to the exclusive jurisdiction of a state or federal court located in Cook County, Illinois.

25. Public Announcement. The Company and Employee acknowledge and agree that the Company shall issue a press release substantially in the form of Exhibit C with respect to the termination of Employee's employment with the Company.

26. Consideration Period. Employee represents and agrees that Employee has had the opportunity and time to consult with legal counsel concerning the provisions of this Agreement, and that the Company has given Employee up to twenty-one (21) days to consider this Agreement. Any changes made to this Agreement before Employee signs it, whether material or immaterial, will not restart the 21-day consideration period. Employee understands and agrees that if Employee does not return the signed Agreement by the close of business on the 22nd day after Employee receives this Agreement, this Agreement will be automatically revoked by the Company and amounts payable hereunder shall be forfeited. Employee further understands and agrees that if Employee does not return the signed Exhibit B by the close of business on the 10th day after the date on which Employee signs the Agreement, this Agreement will be automatically revoked by the Company and amounts payable hereunder shall be forfeited.

27. Employee Right to Revoke. Employee may revoke the Agreement within seven (7) calendar days of Employee's signing of the Agreement. For this revocation to be effective, written notice must be received by O.B. Parrish, Chairman of the Board, The Female Health Company, 515 North State Street, Suite 2225, Chicago, Illinois 60654, no later than the seventh calendar day after Employee signs the Agreement.

28. Company Right to Revoke. The parties understand and agree that the Company has the right to revoke its offer at any time prior to Employee's signing of this Agreement and return of it to the Company, for any reason including, without limitation, Employee's making of derogatory comments or statements of a negative nature about the Company, its directors, officers, shareholders, employees and agents to anyone, including, but not limited to, current and former Company customers, employees, suppliers, vendors, and referral sources.

29. Code Section 409A. This Agreement is intended to satisfy the requirements for the deferral of compensation under section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code") or an exemption thereunder. All terms used in this Agreement shall be interpreted to the maximum extent possible to satisfy Code section 409A. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, payments provided under this Agreement may be made upon a permissible payment event in a manner that complies with Code section 409A or an applicable exemption. Any right to a series of installment payments pursuant to this Agreement is to be treated as a right to a series of separate payments. Any separate payment or benefit under this Agreement or otherwise that may be excluded from Code section 409A as separation pay, a short-term deferral or any other applicable exemption or provision of Code section 409A shall be excluded from Code section 409A to the maximum extent possible. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Company may amend this Agreement without the consent of Employee to add, alter or remove any provision that the Company deems necessary, appropriate or advisable to comply with Code section 409A. If there is more than one way to add, alter or remove a provision to comply with Code section 409A, the Company shall have the discretion to choose the alternative it believes to be in the best interest of Employee and the Company.

30. Acknowledgment. The undersigned parties acknowledge and agree that they have carefully read the foregoing document, that a copy of the document was available to them prior to execution, that they understand its contents including its release of claims, that they have been given the opportunity to ask any questions concerning the Agreement and its contents, and have signed this Agreement as their free and voluntary act.

31. Miscellaneous.

(a) All provisions in this Agreement, including subparagraphs, are severable, and the unenforceability of any provision shall not affect the enforceability of any other provision. The parties agree that each covenant contained in paragraphs 12, 13, and 14 is separate and independent. If any provision of this Agreement is held to be unenforceable, then this Agreement will be deemed amended to the extent necessary to render the otherwise unenforceable provision, and the rest of the Agreement, valid and enforceable. If a court declines to amend this Agreement as provided herein, the invalidity or unenforceability of any provision of this Agreement shall not affect the validity or enforceability of the remaining provisions, which shall be enforced as if the offending provision had not been included in this Agreement.

(b) Company may assign this Agreement to a successor entity without notification to, or the consent of, Employee. This Agreement shall be binding upon Employee, and shall inure to the benefit of Company, its successors and assigns.

(c) The failure by Company to enforce any right or remedy available to it under this Agreement shall not be construed to be a waiver of such right or remedy with respect to any other prior, concurrent or subsequent breach or failure. No waiver of rights under this Agreement shall be effective unless made in writing with specific reference to this Agreement.

(d) Until such time as Employee has performed all of Employee's obligations hereunder, Employee agrees: (i) that Company may notify any third party about Employee's obligations under this Agreement and (ii) to provide Company with information, including but not limited to, supplying details of Employee's subsequent employment sufficient to verify that Employee has not breached, or is not breaching, any covenant in this Agreement.

(e) Only as to any portion(s) of any prior agreement(s) that concern(s) the specific subject matter contained in this Agreement, this Agreement supersedes any prior agreement concerning similar subject matter dated prior to the date of this Agreement, and by execution of this Agreement, both parties agree that any such predecessor agreement shall be deemed null and void. Unless contained herein, no representation, promise or agreement concerning the specific subject matter contained in this Agreement shall be binding on Company. This Agreement may not be modified orally or by conduct. Any modification of this Agreement must be in a writing that refers to this Agreement and is signed by both parties.

(f) Each party acknowledges and agrees that if such party breaches this Agreement, then, to the extent permitted by law, such party will be liable to the other parties for the costs incurred in enforcing its rights under this Agreement, including the non-breaching party's reasonable attorneys' fees.
